

Conference on Macroeconomics and the Labour Market

May 11 and 12, 2018

The workshop is jointly organized by the DFG Priority Programs “Financial Market Imperfections and Macroeconomic Performance” (SPP 1578) and “The German Labor Market in a Globalized World” (SPP 1764). The central purpose of the workshop is to bring together researchers working at the intersection of macroeconomics, financial economics, and labor economics. The workshop will take place on May 11 and 12, 2018, in Mannheim at the Centre for European Economic Research (ZEW).

Björn Brüggemann (VU University Amsterdam), Philip Jung (TU Dortmund), Pedro Martins (University of London), and Claudio Michelacci (EIEF) already agreed to present at the conference.

We welcome submission of papers or extended abstracts covering questions at the intersection of macroeconomics and financial economics or labor economics. Please submit your paper or extended abstract to Heiko.Stueber@fau.de by January 31, 2018. The organizers will pay for hotel accommodation and travel for all presenters.

Program committee: Michael Burda (Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin), Tom Krebs (University of Mannheim), Christian Merkl (Friedrich-Alexander-Universität Erlangen-Nürnberg, FAU), and Heiko Stüber (FAU and Institute for Employment Research, IAB)
