19th ZEW Summer Workshop for Young Economists

July 24 – 28, 2017, Mannheim, Germany

The Centre for European Economic Research (ZEW) is pleased to invite submissions for its 19th Summer Workshop for Young Economists in Mannheim from July 24 to 28 2017. This year's workshop will cover recent theoretical, empirical and experimental developments in the design of market institutions. Particular focus will be given to auction and matching markets. The workshop will bring together promising international doctoral students and postdoctoral fellows for four days of intensive training by renowned international academics. The summer school will include lectures given by four leading economists and paper presentations allowing the participants to present and discuss their work and receive advice from the lecturers. Young academics who wish to attend the workshop are invited to submit a paper. We particularly welcome applications from the fields of market design and empirical, and specifically structural, industrial organization.

KEYNOTE LECTURES

- Dorothea Kübler (WZB Berlin Social Science Center)
- Alexander Westkamp (University of Cologne)
- Frank Wolak (Stanford University)
- Christine Zulehner (Goethe University Frankfurt)

PARTICIPANTS

Advanced doctoral students and postdocs who have completed their thesis within the last three years are invited to submit papers. The ZEW Summer Workshop is open to a maximum of 20 participants. There is no participation fee. However, travel and accommodation expenses must be covered by the participants. Researchers interested in participating should submit a full paper version (preliminary versions are welcome) and a CV no later than 1 April 2017 to the following e-mail address: summerworkshop2017@zew.de
