

Information under art 12\(1\), 13, 14, 21\(4\) Reg. (EU) 2016/679 (General Data Protection Regulation - GDPR)

In relation to sending you ZEW publications, we would like to inform you of the following concerning the processing of personal data which concern you:

To regularly offer you our free publications by post or email, we process your title, first and last name, the name of your employer, your place of residence or the address of your employer, your email and, if necessary, your fax number. We collect these data on the one hand from you when you subscribe – either by filling out our printed form or by asking us by email – to receive ZEW publications and on the other hand by researching into publicly accessible sources.

Controller of the processing of the abovementioned personal data ('your data') is:

The reason we are allowed to process your data is, basically, that we do so in the public interest and not because you have given consent to the processing. That is to say, every non-economic (within the meaning of section 1 of the Annex to no 2.2 of the German [WGL-Beschlüsse) processing activity at ZEW, as in this case the processing of your data, is based on Article 6\(1\)\(1\)\(e\) GDPR, read in conjunction with Article 6\(3\)\(1\)\(b\) GDPR (see also Recitals 41 and 45 GDPR), with §§ 2 und 3 of the articles of association of ZEW of 16 November 2018 and with § 65\(1\)\(1\) of the German LHO BW. The processing is namely necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the important public interest of the State of Baden-Wuerttemberg, sole owner of ZEW, namely for the non-profit scientific research at ZEW, for which the latter is funded by the German state pursuant to § 1(1) of the German AV-WGL, read in conjunction with § 1(2) of the same and the Annex to the same, as an institution of general scientific-political importance.]

We will disclose your data, outside ZEW, to a provider of print distribution services, who will process your data on our behalf insofar as necessary for sending you our print publications.

Should you inform us that you no longer wish to receive our publications, we will thereafter process your data only insofar as necessary to fulfil your request. Otherwise we will store your data for as long as you remain reachable for such communications.

You may exercise the following rights towards us: access pursuant to Article 15 GDPR; rectification pursuant to Article 16 GDPR; restriction of processing pursuant to Article 18 GDPR; objection pursuant to Article 21 GDPR. When doing so, please cite 'OEFI-PUR-Mit13-14DSGVO (Verteilung ZEW-Veroeffentlichungen)'. By contrast, because your data are processed in the public interest, pursuant to Article 17\(3\)\(b\) GDPR you have no right to have them erased and pursuant to Article 20\(3\) GDPR you have no right to data portability.

You may also lodge a complaint pursuant to Article 77 GDPR with the supervisory authority (Landesbeauftragter fuer den Datenschutz Baden-Wuerttemberg).

You are not required by law or contract to provide us with your data, nor is such provision necessary to enter into a contract. Without your data, however, we will be unable to regularly offer you our free publications.

This information was created on 12 May 2020 and is available at ftp.zew.de/dsgvo/pur. A link thereto is contained in the cover letter of the annual report, at the end of each other publication and in the confirmation you receive, in case you subscribe for our publications.
