EGIT – Economic Geography and International Trade

Research Meeting, 6th ed.
Düsseldorf – March 20-21, 2015

Call for Papers

Purpose:

Researchers, who are specialized in regional/urban economics, international trade or related fields, come together in order to share their ideas and comment on other's research papers. The meeting encourages interaction and discussion between the researchers, so that new ideas and joint projects can be initiated. Any theoretical or empirical paper, discussing the topics of economic geography or international trade, is welcomed. This includes (but is not limited to) topics in regional and local labor markets, migration analysis, evaluation of place-based policies, impact analysis of globalization, foreign direct investment, cross-border mergers, and the economics of multinational firms.

Keynote Speaker:

Prof. Henry Overman, London School of Economics

Participants:

This meeting aims at young researchers and Ph.D. students. Senior scholars are invited to participate and take actively part in the discussions and give guidance to younger scholars.

Organizers:

Prof. Dr. Jens Suedekum, Düsseldorf Institute for Competition Economics (DICE)
Prof. Gabriel Felbermayr, PhD, Ifo Institute, University of Munich
Prof. Dr. Volker Nitsch, Darmstadt University of Technology

Organization and schedule:

Start: Friday, March 20, 2015, early afternoon

End: Saturday, March 21, 2015, after lunch

No conference fee. Participants have to cover their own travel and accommodation costs.

Deadline for submission of papers:

Please send your paper or extended abstract before January 15, 2015 to:
